

THE LITTLE DEFENDANT.
BOWMAN TAKES THE STAND AND DENIES IDA'S STATEMENTS.

Judge Grinnell called to the stand, but being given the privilege of refusing to answer, does not testify—Miss Platt's brother tells what he knows—Mr. Case fined.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, Ill., November 1.—The Bowman case, which was adjourned from Tuesday evening on account of the funeral of Judge McAllister, was resumed at 9 o'clock this morning. Judge Tuley's court room was packed and hundreds were unable to gain admission. Where the recess was taken Judge Grinnell, State's Attorney, sat on the stand to testify that after the alleged common-law marriage, Mrs. Bowman came to him and got Bowman indicted for taking a trust deed from her, telling Grinnell that Bowman had promised to marry her but had failed to keep his promise. The object of this was to show that Mrs. Bowman did not regard herself as a wife. The complainant's counsel objected to his testimony, holding that though the State's Attorney took no fee, his relations to the lady were of lawyer to client, and any communication made to him in his official capacity was privileged and should not be made public. Judge Tuley asked Grinnell if this point had ever been raised before. Grinnell said it had not, and the court decided to take it under advisement. Numerous decisions and precedents were introduced by both sides this morning, dating from the time when law became a common law and common law lawyers intended that a retainer was essential to establishing confidential relationship between client and lawyer. Frank Ide's lawyers held the contrary to be sound law. Judge Tuley said the Illinois Supreme Court had decided that such communications were not privileged but that the United States Supreme Court had decided that they were. But in the present case, Ide had not had his legal rights, if she had any, on this point by giving her version of the interview between her and Judge Tuley.

UNFAIR TO EXCLUDE THE OTHER SIDE.
Judge Grinnell could refuse to testify, for he could not be compelled to do so, but he did not refuse and took the stand. Congressman Mason began to examine him, whereupon Grinnell asked to be allowed to answer his questions. The first grand ball of the Jolly Knights' Social Club will be given at Baughan's Hall on November 10th. The Fourth Ward Oval Star was taken into custody this morning on suspicion of having committed a theft. Another special service of song will be given at the American Legion Hall, which will be conducted by Secretary Samuel Buchanan.

Judge Tuley was fined $1 and costs and Justice Dragson this morning for disturbing the peace.

John D. Clancy of Edwardsville is visiting her son, Dennis of East St. Louis.

There were 175 arrests during the month of October.

John Toomey, who was arrested for malicious mischief on complaint of James Zug & Co., was fined $100 for $80 by Justice Dragson last night after trial at Bellwood.

Otto Star was taken into custody this morning on suspicion of having committed a theft.

"Do I understand that I am at liberty to answer or not?" inquired Judge Grinnell.

"I am," said the lawyer, "asked for information," said Judge Tuley. "I shall have to give it, and the Judge repeated him in decision."

"I am at liberty to answer or not?" I am permitted to give my reasons briefly I shall decline to answer," said Mr. Mason.

"He may explain," said Judge Tuley.

"Well then, I decline to answer because I consider it would be a crime to commit it if it were a crime to tell what would be proper to tell the interest of justice. It is a private matter, but it influences public policy, and I should consider it establishing a bad precedent to testify. We are now at a standstill," said the State's Attorney and to say that I could divorce them would be to say I could divorce others, which is much more important."

Consequently Mason: "Do you consider it is a trespass of public utility to let one side give its version of an affair, and then to bar out the other side?"

"WON'T SAY ANY MORE."

Judge Grinnell: "I have stated before that I consider it is a trespass of public utility to let one side give its version of an affair, and then to bar out the other side."

"I cannot permit that," said Judge Tuley.

Consequently Mason: "Your Honor, you have allowed this witness to be a judge of the facts, and I consider it is a trespass of public utility to let one side give its version of an affair, and then to bar out the other side."

"It won't permit it," said the Court, and Judge Grinnell stepped down.

Mrs. Bowman's face was wreathed in smile at this victory. Mrs. Platt, the brother of Miss Estelle Platt, whose Bowman married September 23, 1888, was then called to the stand and testified he was in New York City, Long Branch and other places, and could not have been in St. Louis at the time of the shooting.

The witness said he was born in Vermont and lived there until he was 35 years old, when he went to St. Louis.

"Were you in the war?"

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

Judge Grinnell argued it out.

Bowman was then asked about the most skillful optician at the very lowest prices at Mermod & Jaccard Jewelry Co., corner of Broadway and Locust, Steel, $1; gold, $5.

United States Court Notes.

The case of Chas. Aldendorf against the Accident Insurance Co. of North America, in the United States Circuit Court, was dismissed on a technicality, the court holding the defendant to the action had been filed before sustained, and the plaintiff failing to amend.

A jury in the United States Circuit Court to-day found for the plaintiff for personal damages and costs in the suit against S. D. Berger. The suit was for the recovery of a sum of $1,000,000, which he had paid to the defendant, and he had to pay him $1,000,000.

"What are your reasons for a new trial in this case?"

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

Judge Grinnell replied in a spread-eagle stump speech, seeking to show that he was an expert in law, while his brother, a soldier—Grant or Sherman—was a "soy" on women, he was too honorable to be or to act like a soldier. Bowman was an Appomattox and had been in his way to "plant the stars and stripes" on the white elephant.

"Object," said Mr. Case.

"I object to the stand the Court."

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,

Published by
THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

[Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo., as second-class mail matter.]

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning..... $12.00
Six months..... 5.00
Three months..... 3.00
By the week (delivered by carrier)..... 3.00
Sunday Edition, by mail, per year..... 3.00
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by returning the same to us this office by postal card.THE WEEKLY.
One year, postage paid..... $1.00
Six months, postage paid..... 50
All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressedPOST-DISPATCH,
313 Olive street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms..... 202
Business Office..... 204
London Office, 22 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross.

A SPLENDID STORY.

By the Author of "The Luck of Roaring Camp," "Tales of the Argonauts," &amp;c.

BRET HARTE'S NEW STORY
OF MINING LIFE IN CALIFORNIA,
"CRESSY!"

"CRESSY!" has all the characteristic qualities of Bret Harte's early work—pathos, quaint humor, fresh charming description and sympathetic appreciation of true manliness and womanliness even under the roughest and most uninviting exterior. It is a love story of dramatic situation and exciting incidents.

The Opening Chapters Will Appear
IN THE"Sunday Post-Dispatch"
NOVEMBER 4.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1888.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GRAND—"Starlight."
OLYMPIC—Carleton Opera Co.
POPEYE—"Beacon Lights."
POPEYE—"Lost in New York."
STANDARD—Hyde's Specialty Co.

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p.m. to-day, for Missouri are: Light rains, preceded in the southeast portion by fair weather; cooler; southerly, shifting to westward winds, with local storms.

GO, WEST.

GO EAST, old man, go East.

DOWN the Democratic dictators.

BLAINE is his own Burchard this year.

THE Mayor's speech is still unreported.

MURCHISON is a good enough Burchard for 1888.

Is BLAINE among the prophets? No, he is a total loss.

THE Post-Dispatch's Christmas tree is an assured success from the start.

OUR EUGENE KELLY is the only Democrat who sympathizes with SACKVILLE.

ONLY five days until the office-selling hordes will feel the weight of Justice's sword.

Is there no Republican able to rise above party for the sake of the national honor?

WHAT the bosses call political assessment is defined in the statutes as highway robbery.

REPUBLICAN sentiment asserts that the national honor must be subordinated to party needs.

In the past the bosses have whipt us with rods. Now they propose to whip us with scorpions.

It would be the proper thing for the Republican critics of CLEVELAND to hold an indignation meeting.

The attention of the District Attorney is respectfully called to the lottery advertisement in this morning's Waste Basket.

It will be right hard work now to make any one believe that there is an alliance between GROVER CLEVELAND and the British Free-Trader.

WHEN Mayor FRANCIS said that he followed the plow he only meant doubtless that he went after it and raked in the profits of the plowman's labor.

Blaine's prediction that Cleveland would not "dare to send SACKVILLE home" should be a dreadful warning to him that he should "never prophecy until he knows."

The action of the Central Committee in deposing the candidates it had forced on the City Convention shows its supreme contempt for the convention which did its dirty work.

ARE decent Democrats willing to have their party nominations bartered for cash and pledges of ring appointments? That is what the success of the bosses' ticket will mean.

WHEN BLAINE said "Neither Mr. BAYARD nor Mr. CLEVELAND will dare to send SACKVILLE home," did he not rebuke those rash Republicans who now censure CLEVELAND because he did send SACKVILLE home?

There is a prospect that several blank spaces will appear on the Union Labor ticket. Union Labor voters will not disgrace their ticket by filling the blanks with the names of candidates nominated by a dark-lantern ring of boodle bosses.

CANDIDATE ALBRENDT might have been and probably was the most unit man that could have been selected for the responsible office of Coroner, but it was not his unitness which led to his summary taking off by the Central Committee. He was removed because he was unable to put up the money.

REPUBLICAN critics should beware of too readily adapting and echoing the British idea that the President's treatment of the British Minister was "brusque and brutal," "a bid for votes that is a disgrace to American statesmanship," and all that. It will hardly do for the Republican party to take the Tory Ministry's side in this matter, as well as on the amendments to the extradition treaty.

POLITICAL TRICKERY.

Democratic and Republican leaders have been fond of reiterating that this is a campaign of ideas and education. And yet the Republican fight has been marked by a succession of tricks and robbards. This is the Blaine method of conducting campaigns. It trusts to the vast army of solid partisans to cast their ballots for the party and rustles around with all kinds of bugaboos and canards to catch the ignorant floating vote which boodle may not directly reach. The West letter is a fine example of the Blaine methods in politics. Fortunately it was given in time for President CLEVELAND to follow the lead with a high trump and take the trick. He has twisted the tail of the British lion and has made the old animal wimpy in a way which ought to delight Irish hearts and offset the free-trade scare and the British interest spook.

Meanwhile the world is treated to a disgraceful view of American politics. The Minister of a friendly nation is entrapped by a piece of palpable fraud and forgery and is disgraced. International amity is threatened by political trickery. It is enough to disgust all intelligent Americans, and the party which countenances and attempts to make capital out of such disreputable practices should be rebuked at the polls.

The election of 1888 should be marked by the triumph of tariff reform and the defeat of political trickery and corruption.

ASHAMED OF THEIR BOSSERS.

Not a single word has been uttered by a respectable Democrat in defense of the secret caucus methods by which the bosses' ticket was forced on the party. Not a word has been said in favor of the men who formed the ticket.

No respectable Democrat dares to defend the methods of the men. Even the hide-bound organ of the bosses is significantly silent on the subject of the secret caucus and the disreputable means which the bosses used to control the City Convention. It has plenty of space to devote to tariff reform, to the fightin Illinois and to denunciation of Republican boddies, and bosses, but not a line ever appears in defense of its masters or their methods.

The editor of the party organ and all Democrats know that there is nothing to say except in condemnation of the Democratic bosses. They know that the bosses' schemes were conceived in corruption and born in fraud and force. They despise the methods of the ring and detest the ringtakers. The voters are ripe for revolt and the party organ knows it. It is ashamed and afraid to speak a single word, badly as it is needed, for the men into whose hands it proposes to deliver the party, bound and gagged.

Every respectable Democrat who is driven by his party whip to cast his ballot for the bosses' ticket will do so with bitterness in his heart and condemnation on his lips for the men who have defrauded him of his rights and have disgraced his party.

The bosses call political assessment is defined in the statutes as highway robbery.

In the past the bosses have whipt us with rods. Now they propose to whip us with scorpions.

It would be the proper thing for the Republican critics of CLEVELAND to hold an indignation meeting.

The attention of the District Attorney is respectfully called to the lottery advertisement in this morning's Waste Basket.

It will be right hard work now to make any one believe that there is an alliance between GROVER CLEVELAND and the British Free-Trader.

WHEN Mayor FRANCIS said that he followed the plow he only meant doubtless that he went after it and raked in the profits of the plowman's labor.

Blaine's prediction that Cleveland would not "dare to send SACKVILLE home" should be a dreadful warning to him that he should "never prophecy until he knows."

The action of the Central Committee in deposing the candidates it had forced on the City Convention shows its supreme contempt for the convention which did its dirty work.

ARE decent Democrats willing to have the assessment of JOHN J. O'NEILL in the Eighth Congressional District is $1,000, and the assessment of GEO. H. CASTLEMAN in the Ninth District is $2,000. The bosses charge all their vile traffic will bear.

These disclosures are sufficient to prove the rotteness and odious methods of the disreputable ringsters who are trying to run the Democratic party. They are in politics for boddies only and they propose to use the party as the tool of their corrupt schemes. What they have done and are now doing to bring the party to disgrace and ruin are only poor samples of what they will do unless the Democratic voters revolt in just indignation against them and destroy their power by defeating them and their party for city and State offices.

ABOUT ADVERTISING.

The editor of the Waste Basket continues to offend propriety with allusions to the remarkable advertising patronage he enjoys, especially in the Sunday Waste Basket.

His advertising is really remarkable; it is unique.

By taking advertisements free from those who are willing to give them to him, and by lifting out of the real newspapers the advertisements of people who would not use the Waste Basket on any terms, he manages to pad his lean and hungry pages to the extent of ten columns or so every Sunday.

How much advertising does he get?

The answer is given in the following table showing the amount of paid and free advertisements in the Waste Basket during the four Sundays in October of the past three years:

SUNDAYS.	Columns.
	1886	1887	1888
First Sunday.....	26	22	10
Second Sunday.....	61	69	10
Third Sunday.....	56	55	10
Fourth Sunday.....	50	52	10
Totals.....	243	229	40

In other words the advertising patronage of JONES is of so flattering a character that during the month of October, a very good month for business, his paid Sunday advertising fell 2 columns below the record of the Poor Old Republican for 1887, and 16 columns below the record for 1886.

Evidently the advent of JONES has done nothing to prevent the slump of the newspaper he is trying to build up.

THE CASE OF KELLY.

The Italian Government rejected Mr. EUGENE KELLY, United States Minister, for a speech he had made in this country as a citizen of this country long before his appointment—not for anything he had said or done as a diplomatic representative of our Government at Rome. The Minister of a friendly nation is entrapped by a piece of palpable fraud and forgery and is disgraced. International amity is threatened by political trickery. It is enough to disgust all intelligent Americans, and the party which countenances and attempts to make capital out of such disreputable practices should be rebuked at the polls.

The election of 1888 should be marked by the triumph of tariff reform and the defeat of political trickery and corruption.

ASHAMED OF THEIR BOSSERS.

Not a single word has been uttered by a respectable Democrat in defense of the secret caucus methods by which the bosses' ticket was forced on the party. Not a word has been said in favor of the men who formed the ticket.

No respectable Democrat dares to defend the methods or the men. Even the hide-bound organ of the bosses is significantly silent on the subject of the secret caucus and the disreputable means which the bosses used to control the City Convention.

It has plenty of space to devote to the erring Minister home, the British and Canadian press attack our authorities for exercising a conceded right under an admitted period of binding in law, and can be enforced if the employer is responsible. It is not absolutely necessary to have witnesses present.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

A. SMITH.—You can get naturalization from any of the Circuit Courts, from the U. S. Commissioner, or from the U. S. Immigration Commissioner.

The appointment is made by me on what seems to be the weight of (Republican) influence in the district." In other words, he has been an avowed spokesman, pure and simple. In his letter of acceptance he approves of the civil service law, which we believe Cleveland has, on the whole, faithfully executed, and makes exactly the kind of promise Cleveland made to me to appointments not covered by the law, but not significantly: "I know the general sentiment demands the adoption of the spirit of the civil service rules to all appointments and removals." It will, however, be my sincere purpose, if elected, to advance the reform. We believe he does know these practical difficulties much better than Cleveland did when he took office, for he has been one of the difficulties himself; but there is neither in his career nor character the smallest reason for supposing that he would make half the battle against them that Cleveland has done.

These disclosures are sufficient to prove the rotteness and odious methods of the disreputable ringsters who are trying to run the Democratic party.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers, and the Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

The Post-Dispatch is the only paper which has been able to expose the boddies and the ringtakers.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—A young man 18 years of age, a good man in a business house of any kind. Address E. 67, this office.

WANTED—One of the best drummers of St. Louis wishes situation; can furnish horse and wagon. 37

WANTED—A young man who works by a young man of good business ability; familiar with agricultural implements trade. Address E. 66, this office. 37

WANTED—Young lady to keep books in a large business house; must be a good typist. 37

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references; speaks German and English; best of references. Address E. 64, this office. 37

CASTILLAN WATER—A blood purifier and a private trouble is unequaled; natural California Dr. 91. Agency, Addison's Drug Store, 700 Olive st., St. Louis.

Boys.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help for office line. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation of any kind. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation in a private office. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

WANTED—Young lady to keep books in a private office; must be a good typist. 45

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references; speaks German and English; best of references. Address E. 64, this office. 37

CASTILLAN WATER—A blood purifier and a private trouble is unequaled; natural California Dr. 91. Agency, Addison's Drug Store, 700 Olive st., St. Louis.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help for office line. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation of any kind. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation in a private office. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

WANTED—Young lady to keep books in a large business house; must be a good typist. 45

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references; speaks German and English; best of references. Address E. 64, this office. 37

WANTED—Situation of any kind; well acquainted with office work; will accept board. Address August Moyer, 1019 N. 6th st. 45

WANTED—Situation as gardener and florist; will care for flowers and cows and be generally useful. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

WANTED—A woman who understands the care of horses, carriages, etc. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—Young man, formerly school tutor; will accept board; will teach piano; will accept piano and small compensation; no canvassing. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

HELP WANTED—MALES.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help in the Post-Dispatch. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation of any kind. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation in a private office. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

WANTED—Young lady to keep books in a large business house; must be a good typist. 45

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references; speaks German and English; best of references. Address E. 64, this office. 37

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help in the Post-Dispatch. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation of any kind. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—A young man wishes a situation in a private office. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references; speaks German and English; best of references. Address E. 64, this office. 37

The Trades.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help in the Post-Dispatch. 45

WANTED—Tailor to costs, pressing under and to sew by hand. 111 Charles st. 45

WANTED—At St. Charles Cars, W. Charles, 111 Charles st., a good situation. 45

WANTED—Carpenters and cabinet makers. Apply at 2600 Morgan st., Missouri Car & Foundry Co. 45

Laborers.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help in the Post-Dispatch. 45

WANTED—A teamster. 1615 Ohio av. 69

WANTED—Men with shovels, 20th and Locust st., John J. Brown. 69

WANTED—Shovelers. Apply Hydraulics P. B. Co., 59th and Locust st., John J. Brown. 69

WANTED—Young man, formerly a day boy; will accept board; will teach piano; will accept piano and small compensation; no canvassing. Add. or call 233 St. Jefferson av. 45

Boys.

WANTED—Situation will secure you the best of help in the Post-Dispatch. 45

WANTED—A steady-poled boy to black boots and work in barbershop. App. 1023 Washington av. 45

WANTED—Boy to attend horse and barouche; references required. Apply at 1824 Hickory st., Washington av., one block west of Grand st., Fanning & Kennan. 69

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Two insurance solicitors for building and loan work; big pay to good men. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—A colored man to care for horses and carriages and make himself useful about the house. Wages $12, 2830 Jackson st. 62

WANTED—A young man to steady man, living outside St. Louis, to represent established business in his section. Salary about $100 monthly; references. Address E. 67, this office. 45

WANTED—Four young gentlemen in city offices to learn telegraphing on our lines and take situations paying $10, $12, $15 monthly. 45

WANTED—A single, able-bodied old foreigner to feed and take care of mixed bunch of stock and turn his hand to light things about farm; work steady and not too hard; must be a good man. 45

WANTED—A young man to care for horses and carriages and make himself useful about the house. Wages $12, 2830 Jackson st. 62

ATTENTION AUCTIONEERS.

Want at once a good young auctioneer to go out on some of our 2000 stock lots; must be 45 goods, books and shoes, clothing, rents' furnishing good furniture; must be a good man. 45

WANTED—Young lady to wash position as typewriter; good pay to good man. 45

WANTED—A young man who can furnish his own transportation in Missouri; either dry goods or boots and shoes; is looking for a good situation; good references; good references given. C. P. C. 62

SPRUCE CUM.

1,000 barrels Yerment Spruce Gum, 15¢ a barrel, at Addison's Drug Store, 700 Olive st. Try our Spruce Gum Syrup Compound for Coughs, 25¢.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALES.

Stenographers.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch." 45

WANTED—Situation by a good German girl in store or any honest position. 233 St. Jefferson av. 44

WANTED—Young lady wishes position as typewriter; good pay to good man. 45

WANTED—Situation as housekeeper by a middle-aged widow and daughter (sooth Presbyterian) 35 Charles st., Washington av. 45

General Housework.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch." 45

WANTED—Parties will get good cooks and girls for general work, etc. 212 St. Louis st. 45

WANTED—Situation by a good German housekeeper. 212 St. Louis st. 45

WANTED—A first-class citter, sitter and draper for general housework. Address, with stamp, Merritt Manufacturing Co., B. 22, Chicago. 45

Housekeepers.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch." 45

WANTED—Situation as housekeeper by a middle-aged widow and daughter (sooth Presbyterian) 35 Charles st., Washington av. 45

Laundresses.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch." 45

WANTED—A young girl to wash clothes, etc. 45

Supper This Evening
AT THE
DELICATESSEN.

CITY NEWS.

THAT elegant West of England tweed check suit that Crawford is making to order for $35 is a daisy. Exclusive merchant tailors ask $60 for the identical suit. Crawford's price $25 will further notice.

Dr. E. C. Chase,

Corner of 5th &amp; Olive streets. Set of teeth, $5.

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsbier, 514 Pine St.

Dr. WHITNER, 617 St. Charles, cures diseases of indirection, indigences. Call or write.

THE CINCINNATI BOND SCARE.

Ex-Gov. Hadley Explains the Invalid Issue.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, November 1.—New York holders of Cincinnati bonds were exiled yesterday by the report that ex-Gov. Hadley of Ohio had examined the last issue of city bonds and declared them invalid.

"There were two classes of bonds issued," Gov. Hadley explained to reporters. "A great many were issued for general governmental One-half were to be paid by a general tax levied upon the city generally and one-half by the property-holders contiguous to the improvements made by the city, and by the authority of different laws. The bonds have been issued indiscriminately under the authority of the law by the city and to me on some of them bonds had not been purchased them sent to me for an opinion. I told them the bonds were invalid."

Gov. Hadley received the following telegram sent from the Cincinnati Office: "Ex-Gov. Hadley, your opinion as to the validity of the $2,000,000 October bonds is a scheme to gain further time for your clients to pay off their debts."

The ex-Governor answered: "S. A. Keen & Co. direct me to say in answer that they are ready to pay the bonds, and that they are valid upon being satisfied of their validity. They are undoubtedly valid if issued to pay for property held by the city, and invalid if issued to property-holders. Mr. Eshelby has up to this time failed to show compliance with the conditions authorizing the issue of bonds."

Mr. John Pearson of S. A. Keen & Co. said that the bonds were to take $35,000. I don't know how many of these invalid bonds have been sold, or to whom.

The work of the Browns is due to my mind," to E. O. Eshelby, the Comptroller of Cincinnati. "He has just lost his job, and his office has been besieged day by day of Cincinnati bonds, who were badly frightened. I think the affair can be arranged to the satisfaction in these last bonds and issuing new ones."

At the American Exchange National Bank, agents of the Cincinnati Club, know how many of the alleged invalid bonds had been disposed of. It is thought that nearly $1,000,000 of them are still in this city, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

YOUTH'S SUITS MADE TO ORDER

FOR $15.

We make to order an excellent $15 boys' suit. If you want a fine suit for your boy we can please you.

MILLS &amp; AVERILL,

S. E. Cor., Broadway and Pine.

FUGITIVE FOSTER.

Efforts Being Made to Effect a Settlement With His Father.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, November 1.—W. R. Foster, Jr., who, while counsel for the Produce Exchange and for the Grattan Fund, swindled the latter out of nearly $600,000 by means of bogus mortgages, has been in prison nearly a month, and as the censors say that the latter are covered no trace of him, many members of the exchange do not hesitate to say that no efforts are being made to capture him, but only to locate him so that he can be arrested at a moment's notice. The members believe that Foster's father, who is a man of large wealth, will make good the fund's loss and, therefore, the prosecution will cease.

The fugitive has been two hours' start of the detectives and this increases the suspicion that the latter are not trying to capture him to cover up their own

ROBINSON WAS A DISAPPOINTMENT

In the case of Foster, Jr., it is said that he had great things expected of "Hobie." He is now a timely hitter and is a good player.

They say, cannot compromise, as the charge against him is that he is a swindler, while the District Attorney would have to do.

A member of the Exchange asked the Grattan Fund to let him go to the Central office to try to get the Central office detectives. The reply was that their detective was not permitted to work outside the city, and that their services were therefore out of the question.

A Safe and Profitable Investment.

The following shows the results of an investment made fifteen years ago by a young man 25 years of age. The investment was in Tontine policy No. 78,372, issued by the Equitable Society of New York.

The first annual installment paid for it was $66.02, and the total of the installments paid is fifteen years amounted to $600.00. If he had died at any time during the first year, the investment would have shown a return of $15.00 for every $100.00. If he had died during the second year the return would have been less, but still greatly in excess of the premiums paid. If he had died at any time during the fifteen years, the return would have been larger than the total amount of premiums paid. As he did not die, however, he has just been given the choice of the following methods of paying off:

1. Cash value of $144.61: this is a cash return of more than $144 for every $100.00. If he had died during the second year the return would have been less, but still greatly in excess of the premiums paid. If he had died at any time during the fifteen years, the return would have been larger than the total amount of premiums paid.

He is the only man who has been

McCarthy, Murphy may well be happy. He is the only man who has been at the head of the team, and after they left Philadelphia he had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal of time to practice.

He had a great deal